

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

Gbeke Michael Awala, Plaintiff,

v.

MARTIN P. DORKIN,
and

U.S. MARSHAL DENNEY

Defendants.

Civ. No. 06-590-KAJ

MOTION TO RECONSIDER ORDER:

You Created my Inmost Self, you failed to knit me together with my Birthright, you knew me through and through, my being held no secrets from you, how hard for me to grasp your Judgment, how many have you ruled on, yet you refuse to keep away from my Civil Rights Complaint, those who speak blasphemously about my Constitutional Rights to my U.S. Citizen at birth, you took account of their thoughts, you let darkness cover my claims and night wraps itself around me like prison walls, how hard for me to accept your Judgment, you have restricted me from substantially presenting information on the detail account of my profound birth in Miami-Dade County, you exercised an improper influence on these defendants and causes them to defy my Birth name, age and present age. See: Hadix v. Johnson (1998) 144 F.3d 925 (PLRA). (citations omitted).

In Conclusion, Gbeké Michael Awala, as a man of sterling character, having the courage to endure, to dare, to win the approbation of your own Conscience, and popularity in its best and highest sense, yet it is precisely in this element of intrepidity that most present day leaders or public men and Judges of Federal Court, seem to hold to take stand for the Constitution, to ensure each Amendments hath its vibration, working results that work results again.

Therefore, see: Brawer v. Horowitz (1976) 535 F.2d 830 (United States has authority to represent of witness alleged to have conspired with federal prosecutor to use perjured testimony and to conceal exculpatory evidence in order to convict appellants of transporting stolen U.S. treasury bills). Thus, the illustration in Brawer, analogous with the accolade of my case, as well as its debate, if the Court will characterize the case as precision and lucidity, as a manner consistent to enjoin the IC from keeping me Court well as debatable, Let the Court permit Plaintiff to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1915, notwithstanding, unambiguous issue that he did not file the leave to proceed at the time he file the Complaint, and notwithstanding any standing order at bar against such permission based on the "three strikes" provision. More so prior exhibits of Awala demonstrated that he has no funds to pay the filing fee, the records as a whole in this Case and other Cases reflect Plaintiff's deliberate Intent to pay. See Awala vs Icosie. (D.Del 2005), to name though the matter was terminated in this Court, if the statutory language is clear and plain, a Court must give it effect unless the legislative history is such that a literal reading "will produce a result demonstrably at odds with the intention of the drafters. See Griffin v. Oceanic Contractors, Inc. 458 U.S. 564, 571 (1982). Here the drafters of the In forma Paupers will tolerate extraordinary circumstances in an attempt to correct manifest injustice. Thus the Court should grant this Rule 59(e) Application. In the alternative the Court may proceed to recover the fees from the United States Department of the Treasury exercises Custody regarding funds "representing money that federal agencies owe to American Citizens whose whereabouts are unknown

The Court should agree with Plaintiff that the matter is not frivolous or malicious, but further believe that Plaintiff has stated a claim upon which a relief may be granted and more so, the reason why Plaintiff had attached a copy of the N-400 Application was predicate of the specific thwarts at will MR. MARTIN P. Dickin, of the U.S. Citizenship matter. Nevertheless, had inflicted into the U.S. Citizenship matter. Nevertheless, the Court may conduct its own independent findings of fact and grant any relief deems fit and proper in this proceeding. And the distinction thus indicated above makes perfect sense, to permit this forum to review de novo the nationality issues, because defendants are federal officers, agents or employees having dominion and control over the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services had right to be delegated to them. See. Meredith V. Von Osterhort (1960, Iowa) 286 F.2d 216 (United States had right to appear, through its Attorney General and other subordinate officers, and conduct defense of Federal Judge against whom civil action was brought for acts performed in his official capacity). Thus, the Court should permit the U.S to seek damages regardless if monetary damages were not specified here, but could equitable relief should be allowed into this matter. Court should grant this Motion.
